LUXURY FAMILY TRAVEL WITHOUT THE HASSLE

WHERE TO THIS SUMMER?

WHY NOT LET SIMPSON TRAVEL WHISK YOU AWAY FOR YOUR NEXT FAMILY TRIP, SUGGESTS AWARD-WINNING TRAVEL BLOGGER TING DALTON...

I don't know about you, but once January is over and the excesses of the festive period are a distant memory, my thoughts turn to where to take the family next on holiday.

We're so time poor, and it still amazes me how the weeks just fly by so quickly - but whenever I feel a little jaded by the stresses and strains of everyday life, I only have to think of our travel plans, and I am guaranteed to smile again.

With so many destinations and travel companies out there, it can be a minefield of information; who to book with, where to go, will every member of the family be catered for? It's enough to make anyone's head spin. And, if you're also not the type of person who likes trawling through endless websites and magazines, where do you even begin? Well, I have the answer...

WHY SIMPSON TRAVEL?

I'm what you call an independent traveller. I like to do research and go through all the different options from destinations to where to stay. I even book flights independently, as well as all the extra flourishes from airport transfers to excursions. However, since having my youngest son, and being so busy - I am struggling to find the time - and let's be honest the inclination - to do this anymore.

Synonymous with luxury and style Simpson Travel is a company that always puts their customers first. And when I discovered just how much they could do for me in terms of holiday planning and organising, it suddenly dawned on me that I didn't have to stress!

Sure you might be able to find other brands and companies claiming to offer first-class service but do they have 40 years' experience in the travel business? Do they have a plethora of travel awards from industry giants such as Condé Nast and The Sunday Times?

More importantly, however, is Simpson Travel's personalised service - from pre-departure extras to local representatives that are on hand to make your holiday special.

Then there's the choice of handpicked accommodation. From self-catering to villas with private pools with the most breathtaking views to boutique hotels that are in idyllic locations with concierge services.

Children are also welcome - family holidays are a speciality at Simpson Travel and some locations offer dedicated childcare and crèches - because every member of the family - young and old - deserves to have a good time as well as relax.

PLENTY OF DESTINATIONS

SUN, SEA AND FUN

If you're looking for a destination that offers you sunshine in droves than Simpson Travel has a wonderful collection in France, Spain, Italy, Turkey, Greece and Corsica. Imagine swimming in the warm, crystal azure waters of Ithaca. Or eating a freshly made lunch on chequered tablecloths as the gentle waters lap the shore in Corfu.

PEACEFUL PLACE

If you want an interrupted stay within the rolling hills of Umbria, then why not select a luxury villa there? Chateaux more your thing? Simpson Travel can offer you your own fairytale castle complete with turrets and towers, and with so much space to explore - perfect for kids to fire their imaginations...

A BIT OF HISTORY

History lovers will enjoy staying in historic towns or villages alive with stories from their pasts. Children will find so much to occupy them from museums to fortresses and castles.

I have never been one to book a holiday through a travel company, I will openly admit that I am now a complete convert.

What's not to like - a dedicated and friendly team who not only know their stuff but who also want you to have an amazing family holiday. They take all the worry and stress out of finding the right accommodation to suit you and also have a wide choice of awe-inspiring destinations around Europe.

And while you're booking your family trip of a lifetime, it's also reassuring to know that Simpson Travel gives back to the community via several charities including The Prince's Trust. So, have I convinced you to at least take a look at Simpson Travel? You won't regret it...
